keyfacts®

Insurers and Type of Insurance

Personal Accident

This personal accident insurance is provided by a panel of three insurers: ACE European Group Limited (lead insurers); Ecclesiastical Insurance Office plc and AIG Europe Limited.

Duration

The school operates the scheme on an annual basis, with renewal due at the start of each winter term (September). Premiums are paid annually or in termly instalments by the school.

Cover commences for each pupil from the first day of the first term, including the duration of the uninterrupted journey to the school. Cover will continue until the pupil leaves the school, provided the school continues to renew the scheme at the beginning of each winter term (September).

Data Protection

Marsh will observe the provisions of the Data Protection Act 1998 (“DPA”).

Marsh believes that all personal data we request is necessary to conduct our business as an insurance intermediary and risk consultant. The DPA defines personal data as any data which relate to a living individual who can be identified from those data or from those data and other information which is in the possession of, or is likely to come into the possession of, the data controller. The personal data we request may also include sensitive personal data which concerns information about an individual’s racial or ethnic origin, political opinions, religious beliefs or beliefs of a similar nature, trade union membership, physical or mental health or condition, sexual life, commission or alleged commission of an offence, proceedings for an offence committed or alleged to have been committed by the individual, the disposal of such proceedings or the sentence of any court in such proceedings.

Personal data will only be used by us for general insurance purposes and for the purposes of providing consultancy services, including arranging insurance cover, handling claims, conducting internal compliance checks, marketing and client profiling, research and statistical analysis, crime prevention, internal record-keeping, building databases for use by Marsh, its clients and insurers and where we believe necessary in order to meet legal and regulatory requirements.

Marsh, when conducting their business as an insurance intermediary and risk consultant may disclose your personal data to insurers, outsourcers, sub-contractors, agents, and service providers, its affiliates, industry regulators and our professional advisors and auditors.

Marsh and/or Insurers may also disclose personal data to any law enforcement agency, court, regulator, government authority or other third party where we believe this is necessary to comply with a legal or regulatory obligation and to a third party that purchases, or to which we transfer, all or substantially all of our assets and/or business.

Depending on the circumstances, the disclosure of personal data (including sensitive personal data) detailed above may involve a transfer of data outside of the European Economic Area (“EEA”).

An Insured Person or a Policyholder has the right to access (subject to limited exceptions) and if necessary rectify the information that we hold about you.

Insurers may carry out enquiries for fraud prevention purposes and in doing so may pass information, including personal data, to third parties and/or relevant agencies. You can ask insurers for more information about this. Insurers may also pass your personal data to re-insurers and/or loss adjusters.

Marsh will take reasonable steps to keep all personal data provided by you secure and will maintain data security procedures designed to protect against loss or compromise of personal data.

By participating in this scheme, you consent to the personal data you provide to us being used in accordance with these data protection provisions and confirm that you have obtained the consent of any data subjects whose personal data you provide to us. Any person disclosing personal data to us must do so in compliance with all applicable data protection laws.
